Dauntea Sledge participated in the very first Three Day on the Hill from March 17-21, 2013. On the very first day of legislative visits, the team identified legislative champion Representative Michael Turner, who ultimately championed the Fostering Stable Housing Opportunities Act.

Dauntea currently serves as the Director of Youth and Family Services at Central Community House. He previously held the role of Youth Program Manager at the same organization for over three years. In his current leadership role at Central Community House, he oversees multiple programs designed to support and empower families in the Near East Side of Columbus.

Dauntea's extensive background in advocacy and community service includes:

- Foster Care Advocacy: As a former foster youth, he was a 2011 FosterClub All-Star and served as President of the Franklin County Youth Advisory Board and Media Spokesperson for the Overcoming Hurdles in Ohio Youth Advisory Board.
- Community Leadership: Dauntea has facilitated Bridges Out of Poverty and Getting Ahead workshops and served as an AmeriCorps VISTA volunteer with Community Properties of Ohio.
- Public Service: Dauntea's public service roles include serving on the Youth Violence Prevention Board, the Franklin County Citizen Advisory Counsel, and the Bridges Steering Committee.
